

Portable MAS-100® system replacement special offer

Discontinuation of calibration, maintenance and repairs for your portable MAS-100® instrument

Dear Customer,

We kindly inform you that we plan to obsolete calibration, maintenance and repair services for the portable MAS-100® instrument by the end of 2020. This MAS-100® instrument has been obsolete since 2007.

In line with this obsolescence plan, we will continue to provide maintenance and repairs, dependent on the availability of spare parts, until the end of 2020.

Now is the time to start actively transitioning from your MAS-100® system to the MAS-100® NT system.

Please contact your sales representative for a special price agreement and quote product code 1.09191.0005 for your new replacement instrument.

Benefit from our broad range of services available for your new instrument:

- Comprehensive validation package
- Training
- Preventive maintenance
- Service plans

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact your local sales representative, or visit our website.

Best regards,
